Day 1 & 2
May 9 & 10, 2027

ALL ABOARD THE TIGER EXPRESS

Begin your journey with an elegant stay at the iconic Raffles Hotel in Singapore, where timeless luxury meets modern sophistication. In the evening, join us for an exclusive drinks reception and viewing of the captivating five-minute film starring the renowned British actor Ray Winstone, presented on behalf of Save Wild Tigers.

The next day, step aboard the legendary Eastern & Oriental Express at Woodlands Station, its iconic green and cream carriages awaiting to transport you into a world of opulence and discovery. Settle into your cabin, a haven for your travels, adorned with cherrywood panelling, sumptuous Thai silks, and intricate Malaysian embroidery. Journey through Malaysia's lush, untamed landscapes, catching a glimpse at tangled jungles, sprawling rubber estates, and tranquil palm plantations as your personal steward serves afternoon tea in the comfort of your cabin. As evening descends, dress for an elegant dinner in the Restaurant Cars, curated by our star chef Andre Chiang. Conclude your evening with a nightcap and entertainment on board, the perfect finale to a day steeped in wonder and indulgence.

Day 3
May 11, 2027

THE SPIRIT OF TAMAN NEGARA

We arrive at Merapoh station in the early hours of the morning. After breakfast, choose from four exclusive excursions, each offering an unforgettable encounter with Taman Negara National Park, a pristine wilderness over 130 million years old. Here, dense jungle, majestic rivers, and verdant mountains provide sanctuary to remarkable wildlife, from water buffalo and macaques to tapirs, hornbills, and the elusive Malayan tiger. Choose to dive into the heart of the forest to learn about the tiger's habitat and the critical efforts to secure its future. Alternatively, accompany a renowned nature photographer and conservationist for a truly immersive experience in this wild paradise, or uncover the spellbinding beauty of the rainforest's awe-inspiring caves. For those seeking serenity, indulge in a bespoke wellness experience, embracing the tranquillity of this tropical haven.

After your chosen excursion, return to the train for lunch as your adventure continues.

Morning of Day 4
May 12, 2027

PENANG ISLAND

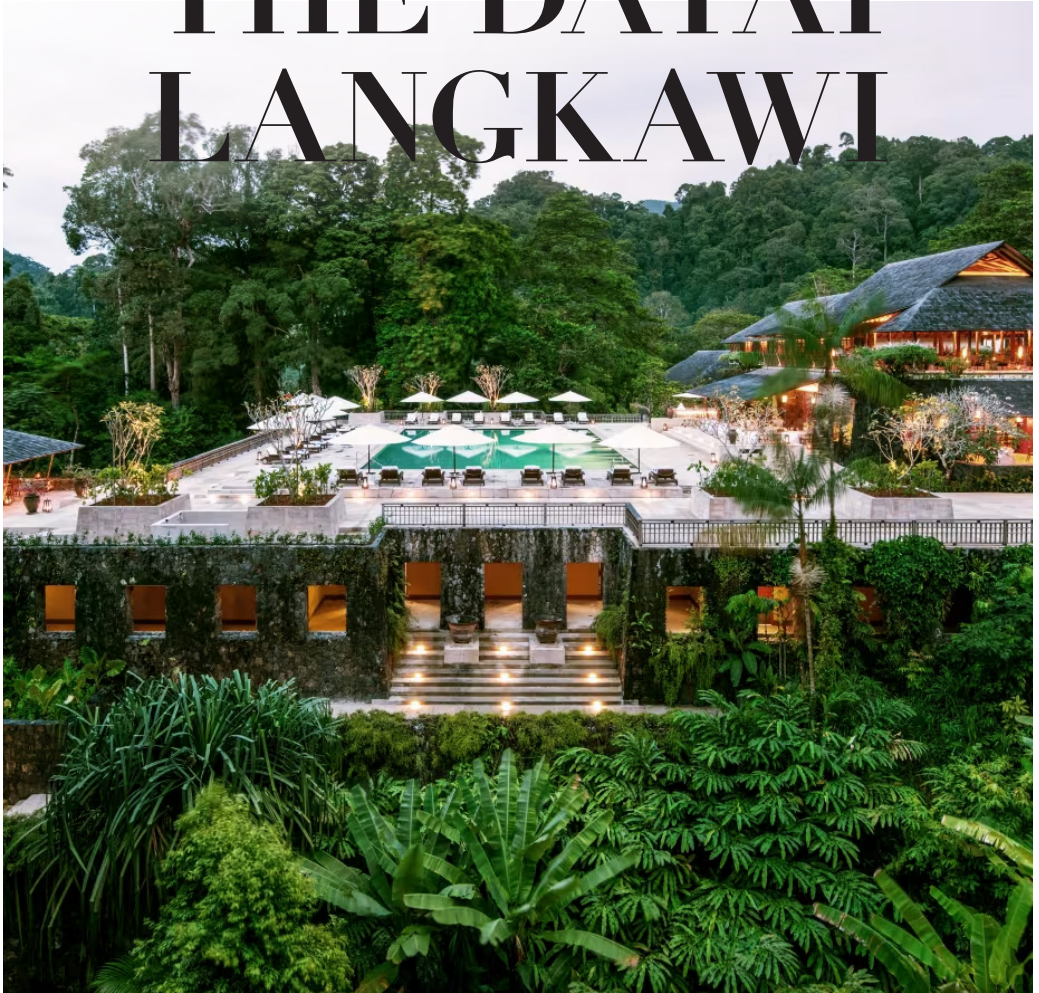

Begin your day with breakfast on board before transferring* by private ferry to Penang Island, home to George Town's UNESCO World Heritage site. Step back in time as you visit two of the island's most historic landmarks, beginning with a ride in a traditional trishaw to the iconic Cheah Kongsi Temple. Closed to the public for this exclusive experience, you'll be welcomed by expert guides for an intimate tour of the temple's intricate beauty. Your trishaw journey continues to the famed Cheong Fatt Tze Mansion, fondly known as The Blue Mansion. Here, while enjoying refreshments, you'll meet the mansion's owner and conservator, who will share fascinating insights into its storied past. Witness a captivating traditional Malaysian indigo batik display and explore stunning images from the Eye on the Tiger photographic exhibition, curated from London's Royal Albert Hall, with the chance to meet the curator.

Afternoon of Day 4
May 12, 2027

THE DATAI LANGKAWI

After your visit to Penang, return to the train for a memorable final lunch on board before a private car transfer takes you to Kuala Perlis. From there, embark on a boat journey to the mystical island of Langkawi. Upon arrival, you'll be chauffeured to The Datai Langkawi, one of Asia's most celebrated resorts. Check into your luxurious accommodation, where the evening is yours to enjoy at leisure. Savour pre-dinner cocktails and indulge in an exquisite meal at one of The Datai's exceptional restaurants, a perfect close to an extraordinary day.

Day 5
May 13, 2027

THE DATAI LANGKAWI

Awake in the tranquility of your private quarters, your home in this island paradise. Nestled in a 10-million-year-old rainforest, this exceptional resort invites you to reconnect with nature, unwind, and rejuvenate your senses. After breakfast, spend the day at leisure, absorbing the tropical sights, sounds, and unparalleled facilities of The Datai. During your stay, a selection of optional excursions await, including an early morning jungle walk led by the resort's resident naturalist to a serene jungle pool for a rejuvenating dip or peaceful moment of meditation.

Day 6 & Day 7
May 14 & 15, 2027

THE DATAI LANGKAWI

As evening falls, join us for a truly unforgettable final night, set against the backdrop of the Andaman Sea at sunset. Indulge in a cocktail reception, followed by an exclusive gala dinner next to the beach, where the natural beauty of the surroundings enhances the celebration of this remarkable journey, curated in collaboration with Save Wild Tigers.

On your final day, check out following your leisurely breakfast with the Datai team arranging your personal transfer to Langkawi airport for your onward journey.

For guests looking to extend their stay at The Datai, preferential rates are available exclusively for Tiger Express guests.

A LIVING LEGEND

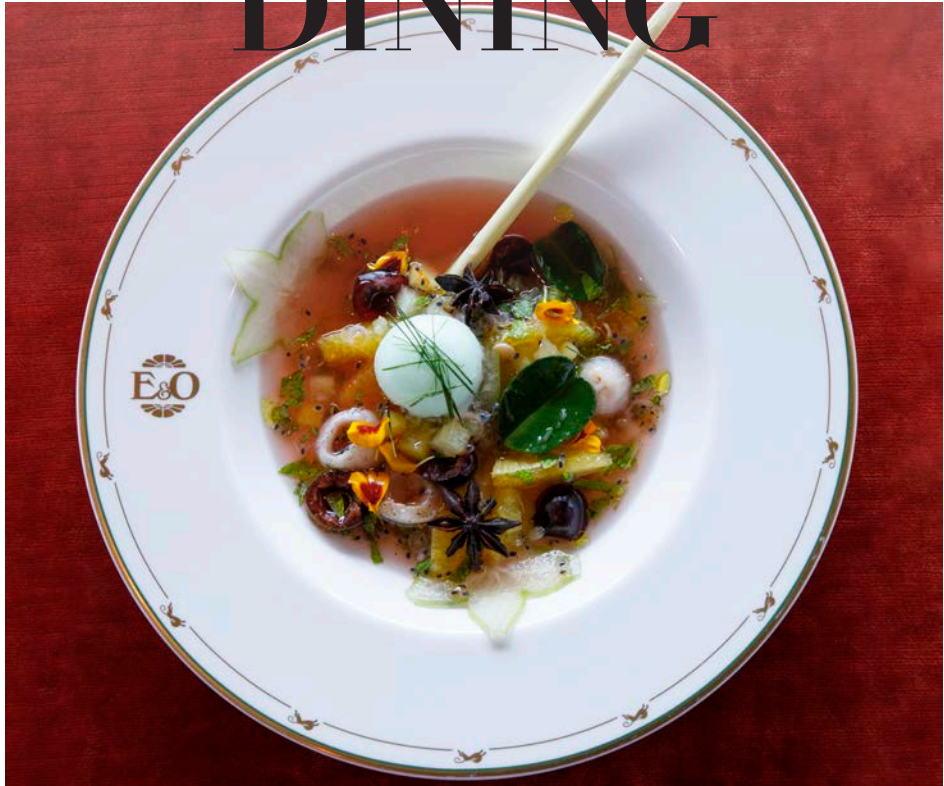

Step aboard the legendary Eastern & Oriental Express, a masterpiece of luxury travel and a living tribute to a bygone era of glamour and adventure. The train's signature cream-and-green exterior welcomes you into a world of timeless elegance, where polished wood-panelled corridors and sumptuous silken furnishings reflect the rich tapestry of Asian design influences. Begin your journey in the Bar Car, where a chic jazz-club atmosphere beckons and live piano plays. Sip champagne or signature cocktails crafted by attentive stewards as soft music sets the tone for an evening of refined indulgence. For breathtaking views and a moment of serenity, make your way to the Observation Car, located at the rear of the train. Here, teak floors and exquisitely panelled walls evoke a sense of grandeur, providing the perfect setting to enjoy the cool breeze and ever-changing landscapes or simply to recline under the moonlit sky.

WINING AND DINING

Anticipate a taste of the region's gastronomic diversity and kaleidoscope of culinary cultures, courtesy of star chef André Chiang. Fresh and local ingredients sourced from the Peninsula of Malaysia will be presented with Chef André's modern twist. Feast on Laksa Bouillabaisse, inspired by traditional aromatic noodle soup, or taste a flavoursome "nine peppers jus" sixteen-hour-braised beef cheek.

The train's two restaurant carriages, Malaya and Adisorn, invite you to take a seat, surrounded by interior decoration inspired by the region's lush green tea plantations and the deep hues of Malaysian landscapes. Enjoy Chef André's menu as it delights your taste buds, while the spicy, tangy aromas of Malaysian cuisine sweep you away.

BEAUTY RITUALS ON THE MOVE

Offering a sanctuary of tranquillity, the opulent Dior Spa Eastern & Oriental Express occupies one of the train's 16 carriages. On-board, two treatment cabins await, adorned in the iconic Toile de Jouy motif — Christian Dior's favourite emblem — and breathtaking hand-crafted tropical wood materials, a true reflection of Southeast Asia's incomparable beauty. Inside the spa on rails, shades of green and beige are paired with a soft brown palette, a nod to the ever-changing landscapes the train travels through.

With custom treatments inspired by the lush surrounds, the Dior Spa Eastern & Oriental Express offers an array of indulgent therapies, from the tension-relieving Constellation massage to the deep muscle relief of the D-Tissue massage, the rejuvenating Kobi-Dior Facial, the sleep-optimizing Le Soin De Minuit, and the holistic, energy-restoring D-Jungle experience. These exclusive treatments, always holistic to Dior's vision of beauty, ensure a journey of profound relaxation and rejuvenation.

Save Wild Tigers

The Fabric of Who We Are

Save Wild Tigers

THE HEART OF MALAYSIA

Over the past century, tiger populations have tragically plummeted by 97%, with fewer than 5,000 tigers remaining in the wild today. With just around 150 tigers left in Malaysia, the survival of this majestic species is hanging by a thread. Save Wild Tigers is dedicated to preventing the extinction of the wild tiger by protecting its most viable landscapes and fostering an environment where these magnificent creatures can once again thrive in their natural habitat.

Join us on this unparalleled journey of a lifetime, where we trace the tiger's ancient path through the stunning regions it once roamed in abundance. Together, let us turn back the clock and stand at the forefront of this crucial conservation effort. The wild tiger's survival is in the balance, the core of the Tiger Express journey is a vital mission and make a lasting impact on the fight to save the wild tiger.
